

Annotate the Queenslander to show how humans have adapted to their environment.

Modelled Response:

- On poles to allow air movement underneath house to cool it down.
- Raised above the ground to be above flood levels
- Shaded balconies to allow cooler outdoor space
- Shaded balconies to keep interior of house cool from shaded decks.
- Windows can have permanent blinds or permanent awnings on the outside to reduce sunlight and cool the house